Questions 10-16 refer to Mr Darcy's letter to Elizabeth on page 63.

Miss Bennet,
Do not worry. This letter does not repeat the offer of marriage which was so disgusting to you yesterday. Instead I wish to tell you the truth about my connection to George Wickham.
When my father died, Mr Wickham was given the job of clergyman at the church on my estate at Pemberley. He turned down the job and was given £1000 instead. I did not hear from him again until last summer when my sister, Georgiana, went missing. Mr Wickham had convinced her that he was in love with her and they had run away to marry. However, when I found them, Wickham admitted that all he wanted was my sister's money.

On the subject of your own sister, Miss Jane Bennet, I admit that I told Mr Bingley she was not in love with him. I had watched her carefully and I could not see any special affection for him. I was worried that she, like your mother, might care more for his money. I acted to protect my friend.
Yours
Fitzwilliam Darcy
