One lonely mortal. One magical friend. One sinister secret.

When 14-year-old Darcy is torn from her Cornish home to move to the concrete, drizzle-soaked town of Cricklewood, her life is in chaos. Her beloved sister, Amber, is gone forever, her parents are busy pretending that everything is fine, and Darcy's only friend is her crushing loneliness. But when a mysterious old woman gives Darcy a bag of magic wool – which can bring any creature she knits to life – Darcy decides to 'make' her own BFF: Alice. But the more Darcy relies on Alice, the more human Alice becomes. And then Darcy starts turning to wool. Alice is hiding a secret, and Darcy must unravel the truth, before she, herself, unravels.
