A Message from Every Cherry

Every Cherry Publishing is an independent publisher based in Leicester, UK. We pride ourselves on breaking down barriers to reading for all through our use of innovative reading approaches such as symbolised stories, signing videos and sensory stories. We strive to make reading fun, exciting and more accessible for people with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND), those learning English as a Second Language (ESL) and anyone needing an extra boost with their confidence in reading. We hope that this catalogue offers an accessible book for everyone.

Having contributed to Sweet Cherry Publishing winning the Small Press of the Year 2025 at the British Book Awards, and the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Award 2025 at the Independent Publishing Awards, we are very proud of what we have achieved so far!

In this catalogue you will find more titles added to the ranges we are already doing so well, as well as exciting new titles and formats. Keep an eye out for our brand-new Every Cherry Originals for older readers and the first ever symbolised Peppa Pig story books!

We hope you will join us in ensuring reading can be enjoyed by all!

Stories for Your Senses

By Emma Steel

Board book | 14 pages each | 180 x 180mm | 3-5 years

Every Cherry's Stories for Your Senses is an innovative series that immerses the reader in stories using the five senses. The storylines act as guides to each environment and sensory descriptions engage readers in each world that is created. Each page will prompt you to use readily available, household items to immerse readers in the environment.

These stories shine brightest when they are read by a carer or parent to a younger child or person with learning disabilities. Each book comes with a free audiobook and soundscape that captures the essence of the book to better immerse each reader.

RRP: £7.99
PUB DATE: June 2026

Every Cherry's brand-new Beacon High series is truly unique original fiction for older readers. Set in a fictional SEND college, this series is written for and about young people with special educational needs and disabilities, offering under-represented readers relatable, contemporary stories to enjoy.

Paperback | 240 pages | 198 x 128mm | 12+ years

By Hayley Webster

Freddie is looking forward to beginning a new school year at Beacon High, especially as he will be the first person in his class to turn eighteen!

But he is soon disappointed as he realises he might not be able to choose everything he wants for his dream birthday celebrations. To make matters worse, he is then left feeling out of control following an incident at school.

Will Freddie be able to reclaim ownership of his party and his body by the time he turns eighteen?

The first in the Beacon High series, The Tattoo features a word count of 12,000 words, dyslexia-friendly font and illustrations throughout.

About the Author

Hayley Webster writes stories for children and adults about how we try to make sense of the world, even when it might not make much sense! She was a teacher for nearly 20 years, and as an adult she was diagnosed with autism and ADHD.

Hayley's favourite thing in the world is being mum to her daughter. She believes it's never a bad time to be kind, laugh ridiculously, or be yourself.

As the Home of Accessible reading, Every Cherry strives to ensure that our range leaves no page unturned! To make our selection of books even more accessible, every book comes with free teaching and learning resources!

Written by qualified Primary School Teacher, Katie Corrigan, our resources are the perfect addition to every book. Expertly crafted, these resources can be used to explore our books in greater depth, hitting curriculum-based objectives, as well as suggesting fun learning activities for learners to enjoy!

A teacher, parent or carer will find discussion ideas, innovative activities and fun sensory experiences in our free resources range!

At Every Cherry, we're passionate about creating high-quality, engaging, and inclusive books for the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) community. Our workshops take this a step further. Our interactive workshops are designed for educators, SEND professionals, guardians, reading advocates and more – anyone who wants to enhance their understanding of SEND literacy and discover how to engage readers effectively.

Led by Emma Steel, Head of Every Cherry and an experienced SEND teacher with 17 years in the field, these dynamic sessions provide:

- Expert insights into SEND learning and engagement
- Hands-on activities to explore the power of inclusive literature
- Practical strategies for using our books to their full potential
- A safe space for discussion, feedback, and idea-sharing

Testimonials

"Our daughter has Autism and some other learning disabilities. Reading has always been a real challenge for her, but this book is really helping to build her confidence and has allowed her to start enjoying reading."

- Geraldine, Parent

"These books truly understand what it means to be able to read a book alongside other children; to discover the stories and feel the joy of this journey despite disability or difficulty."

- Judith Shackell, Assistant Headteacher

"2024 brought the launch of Every Cherry, a brand-new publishing imprint that serves the Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) community. Its books, full of sensory elements and accessible features, are filling a glaring shortage of material for hesitant and reluctant readers."

- The Bookseller

"I LOVE the thoughtful options available in these books, like being able to listen to an audio version of the book whilst reading the text. The glossary boxes and recordings, and of course the accessible language and pictures have also made reading easier. It's so fantastic to have all of this in one easy package rather than trying to patchwork lots of different resources together."

- Ari, Parent

"Just one more page!"
